THIRD PARTY PROSPECTS.

The election in Alabama suggests the question whether the Alliance or Third water that was left at his door one day party movement will prove a failure everywhere else as it has proved in that State, and will disappoint both the hopes and the fears of the politicians.

It seems certain that the element which it has been supposed might produce a political revolution this year will be powerless in the South. If it was to suc. ceed in upsetting old party lines in any Southern State it was likely to be in Alabams. Failing there, it is not at all probable it will break the solid South in any other State. Will it be equally powerless in the West? This cannot be known until after the election. But we have the experience Western States, and it does not seem probable that the element which com-

Pink Tea.

Pink tea is the Summer girl's rad. " How nice!" some gentie littie village maiden exclaims, as she conjures up the cup that cheers but not inchilates, tinged by a rosy hue that makes it strongly aklu to circus lemonade. Ah, gentle ignoramus! how little you know of the arts and wiles of this deceitful world. Pink ten is pink ten only in name. It sounds well, but it acts differently, for it is none other than the insidious whiskey cocktail that has come to be called by the sweet, little Sunday-school name.
